

Damon Veazey

Mr. Veazey has 25 years of Staffing and Consulting experience in the IT and Engineering Space, currently a Managing Partner and VP of Sales for RedHook Consulting Inc.

Mr. Veazey began his career as a C Programmer then moved into a Director of Field Services role managing 100+ consultants. Original member of the Dallas IT Quality Team working with Ford Motor company resulting in the organization becoming Q1 certified.

He was previously the Founder/Managing Partner of RBSI Consulting and RBSI MedStaff (IT and Medical Staffing companies). RBSI Consulting worked with and placed consultants with various customers in 15 different states.

Over most of his career, he worked closely with IBM (initially as a contract programmer and then servicing IBM in various sales and support capacities).

Was one of four Client Account Directors who serviced IBM nationally and globally for the IBM Strategic Account team for Experis/Manpower Group.

- Signed a 7-year Outsourced Managed Solution project for a nationwide Tech Support engagement.
- Responsible for a single sourced 3 Year Data Center contract.
- Responsible for landing and managing Experis' IBM Watson and Lab Research fulfillment business (Clean Room and Tooling Engineers as well as various IT specialist)
- Put together a team from Peru to service an IOT project

Education and Achievements

- Mr. Veazey received his B.S. in Computer Science from Texas A&M University
 - Served as President and Treasurer of the Denton County A&M Club
 - Founded the first A&M Business Roundtable for the Denton County A&M Club
 - Mr. Veazey was a member of the Aggie 100 Club in 2008*
- * the Aggie 100 honors the 100 fastest growing Aggie-owned or Aggie-led businesses in the world.